

Draft Agenda

USDA Farm Bill (Section 9006) Grant Writing Workshop For Renewable Energy and Energy Efficiency Projects in Utah

March 9, 2004, 9:00 am until Noon

Cedar City, Southern Utah University, Hunter Conference Center, Charles Center, Room 107

March 9, 2004, 6:00pm until 9:00pm

Price, College of Eastern Utah, Alumni Room

March 10, 2004, 9:00 am until Noon

Salt Lake City, Department of Natural Resources, 1594 West North Temple,
Room 1040 and 1050

Sponsored by:

The Utah Wind Working Group, DOE/Wind Powering America, USDA/Utah/Rural Business-Cooperative Service, Utah Clean Energy Alliance, and Utah Farm Bureau

0:00 Introduction of the Tutorial Objectives and Co-sponsors

- Christine Watson, Utah Energy Office

0:10 Introduction to Wind Energy Applications and Development Options

- Larry Flowers, National Renewable Energy Laboratory

1:00 Project Case Studies (Including 2003 Farm Bill Awards)

- Sarah Wright, Utah Clean Energy Alliance

1:45 BREAK

2:00 “Lessons Learned by a Recovering Applicant”

- To be Announced

2:15 Overview and Specifics of Section 9006 in the Farm Bill

- Richard Carrig, United States Department of Agriculture

- Applicant and project eligibility
- Grant cost-share and fund use
- Application process (forms and scoring)

2:45 Project-specific Questions for Wind

- Re: Grant Applications: Richard Carrig, United States Department of Agriculture
- Re: Wind Project Elements: Larry Flowers, National Renewable Energy Laboratory

Project-specific Questions for Biomass and Geothermal

- Re: Geothermal Elements: Bob Blackett, Utah Geological Survey
- Re: Biomass Elements: To be Announced
- Re: Energy Efficiency: To be Announced

3:00 Resource Advisory and Adjournment